BUILDING TRUST

KEEPING KIDS AND PETS SAFE

The home should be a safe environment for everyone, including children and pets. Whether you're welcoming a new baby, adopting a new pet, or having young visitors in your home, it can take some time for everyone to adjust. By being proactive you can create a harmonious environment for humans and animals alike.

Create
safe zones
for your pet

Monitor
children and pets
who don't know
one another

Allow
your pet to decide whether to interact with children

Teach
your children
kindness
and respect

Intervene
when play gets out of control

Talk
about how animals
communicate
